OBITUARY

Carlton G. Brown was born on April 23, 1919, entered the service January 9, 1943, died in Palermo, Sicily March 2, 1944, at the age of 24 years, 10 months and 8 days.

He went away with a smile, but will never return again. How we remember his childhood days. We recall the day he went away to fight for his country and us, and we remember the day when a message came that he was sailing across the sea. God only knows our broken hearts, but He says we must yield for our dear ones across the seas who are sleeping on a foreign battle field, and God only knows our broken hearts as he rests upon the shore, he will never have to face the battle front anymore.

He is sleeping beneath the sod, and his soul we know, is with his God. And there beyond the golden shore, I know we will meet his face once more, and when the war is ended and victory at last is won, think of a heartbroken mother who has lost their darling sons. Think of the joy and grief combined when our ships come sailing home. Many a heart will be happy and others will weep and mourn. Many a son will be missing from the land they loved so dear.

He sailed away one day in May and died for you and me, and in that time...
